PUBLIC SALE.

ON Friday, the 19th. October, we will sell to the highest bidder, on the premises, the one mile south of Ridgeway, on R. & G. R. R. in Warren county, the residence of the late Dr. H. L. Plummer.

PLANTATION,

The tract will be divided—one, including houses, contains 600 acres, well adapted to the growth of wheat, tobacco, corn &c., with an adequate quantity of wood land, original growth, and a larger proportion of highly improved lot land than any other farm in the county. Also, a fair proportion of bottom land on a creek, running entirely through the tract.

THE DWELLING

is a good two-story house, with 7 rooms; good cabins, with stone chimneys; excellent frame barns, good granary, stables, &c. Also, a good Orchard of Choice Winter Fruit.

The other tract, on the same road, contains 350 acres, 50 of which is good bottom land, on Fishing Creek, and sufficient wood for fences and fuel, but no house except a barn. Both tracts are in good condition. Dr. Plummer never made less than 17 bushels wheat per acre on these farms—frequently more.

The locality is as healthy and the neighborhood as refined as any in the State. It is in every respect desirable, and it is seldom such a place is offered at auction. One of the subscribers resides on the place, and will show it to any one wishing to see it. Possession will be given 1st. January, but the privilege of seeding wheat granted immediately.

We Will Also Sell

12 head fat Cattle, 20 head Sheep, 50 barrels old Corn, a good Wheat Thrasher, capable of getting out 300 bushels Wheat per day;

Two Wheat Reapers,

SOME EXCELLENT SEED WHEAT, AND OTHER ARTICLES.

TERMS—For land, one-fifth cash; the balance in equal payments of 1 and 2 years, bonds well secured, with interest from date—title held until land is paid for. Other property, cash. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock.

K. PLUMMER, R. T. ARRINGTON, } Executors.

TAX NOTICE.

COLLECTOR'S OFFICE 4TH. DISTRICT, N. C. WARRENTON, Oct. 12th. 1866.

The Assessor's List for February, March, April, May, June, July and August have been placed in my hands for collection. All persons on whom assessments have been made during that period in Chatham county, will meet me or my deputy at the following times and places, prepared to pay their taxes, viz: Grove, Monday 22nd. October; Haywood, Tuesday 23rd; Locust Grove, Wednesday 24., st. Lawrance, Thursday 25th., Hodley's Mills, Friday 26th. Oct., Pittsboro, Monday 29th. Tuesday 30th. and Wednesday 31st. October.

All Distillers, Tobacco, Snuff and Cigar Manufacturers must come prepared to give bond and security, and all who have made application for license must come forward and take out their license. Those who fail to comply with these requirements will be subject to a heavy penalty.

According to the provision of the law those who do not pay at the required time will be liable to ten per cent additional upon their taxes. The special attention of those who have not paid on the back lists is called to this fact.

FOR SALE.

ONE THOUSAND ACRES of valuable land, lying on Neuse River, in the County of Johnson, and on both sides of the N. C. R. Road, between Smithfield and Stallings' Depots.

I prefer selling the whole tract to one man, but will cut it into hundred acre tracts to suit purchasers.—To a company of men wishing small farms and pleasant healthy locations, it holds out good inducements, as I will sell on favorable terms. Persons wishing to examine the land, and coming by Rail Road, can be put off the Cars at Vinson's Mill, where they will always find me.

I will also sell a TWENTY HORSE power SAW MILL, in good working order, with teams, waggons, and all appurtenances. N. M. VINSON.

LAND FOR SALE.

THE undersigned, as Executor of Samuel W. Branch, deceased, will offer at public vendue, to the highest bidder, on the First Monday in November next, the tract of Land belonging to the estate of the said Samuel W. Branch, on which the said Samuel W. Branch resided at the time of his death.

The said tract of Land is situated in Halifax county, North Carolina, about two miles east of Enfield, which is the nearest Depot It contains twelve hundred acres, about two thirds of which are cleared and in cultivation. One hundred acres of the cultivated lands are low grounds of the finest quality. The upland has inexhaustable supplies of marl, of easy access, and is as well adapted to the growth of cotton as any upland plantation in the State. There is a good Dwelling-house, Gin-house, Still-house and out-houses on the Land, an Apple Orchard, in good bearing, sufficient to make ten barrels Brandy, and altogether the plantation is one of the most desirable in the State.

At least three thousand dollars will be required in cash. A credit of one, two and three years will be allowed on the remainder of the purchase money, which must be unexceptionably secured by personal security, or the purchaser may pay all cash at his option. The title, which is indisputable, will be retained until the purchase money is paid. Persons who may desire to purchase can have an opportunity of riding over the plantation by calling at the dwelling. Possession will be given on the 1st of January next.

BENJ. F. GARY,

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

EXCHANGE OF N. C. BONDS FOR STOCKS.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, TREASURY DEPARTMENT. Raleigh, September 27th. 1866.

The Public are reminded that, in pursuance of an Ordinance of the late Convention, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, until 12 M., on the first day of November next, for the exchange of the principal of bonds issued by the State before the 20th. May 1861, for the Stocks held by the State in the various Rail Roads and other Companies, of which the following are the principal:

North Carolina R. R. Co.	$3,000,000,
Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	682,500,
Atlantic & N. C. R. R.	$1,066,000,
Western N. C. R. R. Co.	$1,418,000,
Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Co.	$ 350,000,

No bid less than par will be entertained. Any premiums offered may be applied to payment of the Interest due on the bonds offered in exchange. Bids will be opened in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller, and those will be accepted most advantageous to the State.

Purchasers of preferred stock will not obtain rights greater than holders of stocks not preferred.

In consequence of the bonds and liens, held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

KEMP P. BATTLE, Public Treasurer.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 10, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Sentinel, which goes for "the constitution as it is, and the Union as it was," opposes the amendment, chiefly on the ground that it places white and black, as citizens of the United States, on the same level touching their civil rights, and provides the same penalties to all colors for violation of law. But it must come to this at last. The South Carolina Legislature is ahead of this North Carolina teacher of Southern rights. He ought to know that even in going for the "constitution as it is," with the amendment abolishing slavery, he can never have the "Union as it was" under that peculiar institution—never. There has been a great rebellion and a great revolution in the South, necessitating a great work of reconstruction on the part of the Congress of the United States in the way of securities for the future. This is the meaning of this new amendment; and again we say that if the excluded States are wise they will accept it.—New York Herald.

The Herald, in the above, entirely misapprehends our position. The people of North Carolina having voted the abolition of slavery, the Sentinel, as all our readers know, has always insisted upon, and advocated, the adoption of such laws as were essential and necessary for the protection and maintenance of the civil rights of the freedmen. North Carolina has done this as fully as South Carolina, and long before she did. The freedmen of North Carolina are placed on the same footing before the law as white men, in the protection and enjoyment of life, property and liberty. No amendment to the Constitution of the United States could make it more so. Hence the Herald totally misrepresents us in asserting that we oppose the Howard amendment "chiefly on the ground that it places whites and blaks, as citizens of the United States, on the same level touching their civil rights." We have made no such point, as our readers know. If the Howard amendment simply contained that proposition in its first section, we should not offer one word of opposition to it, but it contains, as we have shown, a great deal more, and empowers Congress, whenever it sees proper, to declare that suffrage, or any thing else, is a privilege to which all male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, are entitled; and that body can confer it upon them, without distinction of color, under the amendment. And that is the ground of our opposition to it. It consolidates the inherent and reserved power of the States into the hands of Congress, so far, at least, as to define particularly the rights, privileges and immunities of all the citizens of the United States, and of the States, and to enforce those rights, &c. Will the Herald, after a careful examination of the first and fifth sections of the amendment, deny our construction? We think not.

What we mean by the "Constitution as it now is," is simply this: We are opposed to any change in the fundamental principles of the government or Constitution; changes rendered necessary by the war we do not object to. For instance, we would not object to an amendment of the Constitution, asserting, positively, that there is no power anywhere to dissolve this Union or change the organic character of the government;—nor to an amendment based on a just ratio of representation and in view of the abolition of slavery;—nor to an amendment defining the crime of treason and its punishment, as applicable in future to all citizens of the States in hostility to the government of the United States;—nor to an amendment preventing the States from passing any law which would abridge, in any manner, the civil rights of our colored population. To nothing of this character would we offer opposition, because the past history of the country and its present condition seem to demand something of the kind. But amendments like the Howard amendment, which clearly violate the principles of the Constitution as it now is, we are opposed to.

By "the Union as it was," we mean simply a Union of States in real harmony with each other, equal in rights and power, seeking and promoting the good of the whole, and the good of each other. Such a Union we once had, and such is the Union we now desire. Any reasonable guarantee or security which the North may require of the South, for such a Union, we shall most cordially support. But we are committed always against any proposition which demands of the Southern people a voluntary advocacy of and assent to the surrender of their personal honor, the guardianship of their internal peace and quiet as States, and the right of self preservation as white citizens of the United States.—This is our position.

THE ELECTION RETURNS received at the time of writing this, though meagre, seem to indicate that the result is pretty much as we anticipated. The folly of running Clymer, a Peace Democrat, for Governor in Pennsylvania, could only end in defeat, as we have been long convinced. When fuller returns from all the States, in which elections were held on yesterday, shall come to hand, we shall be prepared to draw the proper moral from them.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN.—The prospectus of the excellent semi-weekly journal, published in Wilson, appears in our columns. The Editors, Messrs. Hearne and Dunham, evidently bestow much labor upon its columns, and make an able and sprightly paper. We wish them continued success.

WE AGAIN make our acknowledgments to the Southern Express Company for Savannah, Charleston and Mobile papers in advance of the mails.

The Will of the Majority.

The New York Herald is at present occupied, without warrant, authority or probability, in seeking to create the impression that, in the event of a decided Radical triumph in the Northern elections, the President will at once say to the States and people of the South, that, bowing to the decision of the majority, he recommends to them the adoption of the Howard amendment and the acceptance of the Radical programme of reconstruction. Those who impute such a purpose to the President, in our opinion, basely slander him.

President Johnson's policy, as announced in his special message, just subsequent to the adoption of the Constitutional amendment, is based upon the theory that Congress has no right or authority to submit, for ratification by States, amendments to the organic law of the land which they have no voice in framing. A proper extension of this just, sound and correct principle would include in the popular vote which passes upon such amendments, at the elections where they are made tests or issues, the voice of all the people of all the States of the Union,—the unrepresented as well as the represented States. The sentiment of the South is very nearly unanimous in opposition to the Howard amendment. In some of the States, North of the Potomac, there is a decided majority hostile to it, while in many of the larger Northern States opinion is much divided, or the majority in favor of it is by no means large or overwhelming. Combining all the elements, we hazard nothing in the assertion that the will of the majority of the voters of the Union is most decidedly adverse to the Howard amendment.—So that the President, in legitimately carrying out his theory, has the popular sanction upon his side.

In all President Johnson's official acts and public utterances, he has unequivocally pledged himself to abide by and yield to the decision of the majority—not a simple party majority, not a mere sectional majority, but a majority of all the people of all the States of the Union.

Political Principles.

At a recent gathering of the people of Chicago, Ill., to hear a speech from Hon. Mr. Doolittle, the Chairman of the National Club, Hon. G. C. Bates enunciated the following as the Conservative Republican platform:

The principles which you have so bravely contended for, and which the Conservative Republicans endeavor to maintain, are simply these:

1. That the rebellion did not destroy the Union, and of course that the reconstruction of the Union is not the problem consequent on the overthrow of the rebellion.

2. That the rebellion did not destroy any of the States, nor did it divest any State of its rights under the national Constitution; and of course that the problem is neither the creation of new States, as if we had conquered or purchased Canada, nor the restoration of recovered States to forfeited rights; and that

3. Congress, in the exercise of its duties in connection with the reconciliation of the people, and the admission or exclusion of Representatives or Senators, have no other power than that derived from the Constitution.

4. In the language of an eminent Judge of the Supreme Court, in a decision made upon the question: "The moment the rebellion was suppressed and the government growing out of it subverted, the ancient laws resumed their accustomed sway, subject only to new reorganization by the appointment of the proper officers to give them operation and effect."

The above are the principles of President Johnson and all true Conservatives. They are, in our judgment, the true principles of the government.

Railroad Meeting.

At a meeting of the citizens of the county of Cumberland and the town of Fayetteville, held October the 6th, on motion of H. L. Myrover, David McNeill was called to the chair, and John M. Rose appointed secretary.

The object of the meeting having been explained to be to devise means to extend the Western R. R., from Egypt to the N. C. road, Jno. D. Williams, Esqr., offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

WHEREAS, It is important to the town of Fayetteville, county of Cumberland, and State at large, that the Western railroad should be extended to and connected with the North Carolina railroad, and to promote the interests of said extension, it is important that a meeting of all parties interested therein be had at some convenient point; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of the counties of Harnett, Moore, Chatham, Randolph, Guilford, Forsythe, Davidson, Rowan, Davie and all others friendly to the extension, be invited to hold meetings and appoint delegates to attend a convention to be held at Mount Vernon Springs, Chatham co., on Thursday the 1st of November next, to take such steps as may be deemed expedient to advance the construction of said extension, and to consult upon the best means to effect the said work.

Resolved, That the city of Wilmington, and all other towns or cities interested in this work be invited to send delegates to this convention.

The following delegates were appointed from the county and town, with the power to fill all vacancies, viz:—

David McNeill, D. G. McRae, T. S. Lutterloh, W. McL. McKay, J. D. Williams, N. R. Blue, J. W. Baker, Jr., A. A. McKethan, A. McLean, E. J. Lilly, J. H. Cook, David Murphy J. D. McArthur, L. Bethune, E. L. Pemberton, R. M. Orrell, W. J. Kelley, H. R. King, Jno. P. McLean, Jno. C. Blocker, J. B. Carver, Duncan Shaw, D. Murchison, G. W. Bullard, John Bell, Wm. Shaw, Jas. C. Poe, Jas. C. Dobbin, T. D. Fuller, J. G. Shepherd, H. L. Myrover, J. A. Worth, C. B. Mallett, Hector McNeill.

The secretary was directed to furnish a copy of the proceedings of this meeting to the papers of Fayetteville, Wilmington, Raleigh, Greensboro', Salisbury and Salem, for publication.

DAVID MCNEILL, Ch'mn.
JNO. M. ROSE, Sec'y.

Gov. Humphrey, of Mississippi, has issued a proclamation ordering all persons indebted on account of the cotton loan in that State to pay up in gold, silver, or the cotton treasury notes within thirty days, or suit will be instituted against them therefor.

In Terra Haute, Indiana, a few days since, the artesian well of Mr. Rose, at the depth of 1,312 feet, commenced flowing oil of the best lubricating quality, causing much excitement.

A fish was caught in the Ohio river near Cincinati, last week, the stomach of which, being opened, was found to contain a small morocco wallet, holding a two-dollar bill and a valuable diamond ring.

The Future.

We publish, with pleasure, the following thoughtfully matured article from the Essex, Mass., Statesman. It treats of the most important political questions that ever agitated the American Republic in a vein of history and philosophy which illustrates and enforces its patriotic conclusions:

"On a memorable occasion, it was the remark of the Duke of Wellington, in the House of Lords, "If I could avoid, by any sacrifice whatever, even one month of civil war in the country to which I am attached, I would sacrifice my life in order to do it."

This is the real question now presented to the people of the United States, and claiming their deliberate and earnest action. It is not, surely, whether a portion of their fellow-citizens who have been in the insurrection, who have been subdued and have submitted, shall stand again upon an equal footing with those who did not revolt. That, however real and important, is but a narrow and superficial view of the great point at issue. Yet, were that all, one would think that universal joy would welcome a contingency so auspicious, and that the whole national heart would exult at attaining the very object for which the rebellion was resisted, and would gratefully hail the glorious prospect of a restored, instead of a distracted country. For restoration means the happy renewal of former quiet and prosperity, with the quarrel of a generation set at rest; while every day's delay in bringing the States into ancient and amiable relations with each other only tends to hasten the downward progress towards financial and political ruin. On the one hand, we hold back from using the true means of lifting the heavy burdens which press upon the people, and which restored commercial intercourse and restored confidence would do much to lighten now, and would finally remove; and, on the other hand, we repudiate the primal and vital principles of free institutions, by constituting one section of the country a master, and the other a subject. This is simply a substitution of force for the popular will; and the republic will have become a Northern despotism, instead of our remaining a free country as we once were, the boast and admiration of the world, the hope of the nations, the asylum of the desolate and oppressed. We shall be no longer free, but enslaved to our own degrading passions and follies, and the victims of our own want of comprehension of our true interests and duties. We shall have been the meteor of a moment, in the procession of ages, instead of the steadfast and shining light, which the dawn of our existence promised to the multitudes of mankind. The mockery of the foreigner, who is already watching for our downfall, will overwhelm us with passionate but futile shame, and finally we shall be a contempt and derision to our very selves. In a word, no gambler ever more recklessly shut his eyes to consequences, which the experience of every day presses him to consider, than do the American people, in allowing themselves to be led blindly along in their fate, at the sacrifice of reason and conscience, and, as it will be, at length, if not soon checked, at the loss of their freedom, so dearly won, so loudly boasted and apparently valued at so little worth.

Is this honest picture of the possible future of the country at all overdrawn? Let us for a moment consider what its actual present condition really is. At the close of the late session of Congress the executive department of the government and the legislative had been, for many months, at serious odds with each other. Already the most violent and indecent language had been used against the President in the House of Representatives, and, that, too, by those who had been the efficient agents of his election. It was, therefore, no common controversy. It was a struggle between contestants acting upon totally divergent views of public policy. It was like the conflict between Charles I and the Long Parliament, with this difference—that the President, unlike the King, was contending for popular liberty, while Congress, unlike the Parliament, were seeking to establish a prerogative hostile to public freedom. How far this state of things was justified by the party majority in that body can only be judged of by the fact that the party there continued practically unbroken; that extreme measures, merely in the interests of party, were pressed to action by party discipline; and that, at the adjournment, that party majority and the President were in open conflict. The relations between the President and the conspicuous leaders of the radicals were, indeed, those of undisguised personal hostility. In ordinary times a disagreement, however wide, between the executive and the legislative would be of, perhaps, only temporary consequence. A difference upon ordinary topics of legislation might soon be reconciled by reflection and conference; or, if not, any mischiefs likely to result from the improvident action of one Congress might be cured by the wiser consideration of another. But, in the present case, except for the interposition of the people, the evils to ensue, should the factious Congress prevail, could but last until remedied by violence; and the points at issue between the President and the party majority of the legislative body are those which affect the very existence of the republic.

For the question now at stake is, whether the Constitution itself shall survive—whether the States of the Union shall maintain their essential and vital rights—whether the Union shall continue substantially as it was founded by our forefathers; or a central, consolidated system of government shall be constituted, in lieu of our former free condition? For once permit to be broken down those barriers against usurpation, which it was their wise and hopeful endeavor to plant so firmly for the safeguard of all future generations, and we shall, in that deed, have yielded utterly the claim and the power of self government. The radical leader who would then have attained the Presidency would be as powerful as the Czar, without any of these hereditary sympathies, associations and habitudes, which, in the course of centuries, have made the government of Russia paternal, as well as absolute. He might, perhaps, as a form, appeal, from time to time, to the popular vote for the renewal of his term. But tyranny does not admit of altercation of persons; and to maintain his power, he would be as jealous in suspicion, and as remorseless in act, as any of the monsters who succeeded the two first Cæsars.

We do not imagine that in this age, and among this people, such a state of things could last very long. But the idea of it at all, is not pleasant to contemplate. Yet, that, even in a free republic, under the plea of state necessity, the grossest outrages against personal liberty, it not of life itself, may be perpetrated, recent examples enough are at hand; and we may readily infer to what excesses a radical in possession of power and compelled to yield, or to maintain himself by force, would be likely to resort.

It need scarcely be remarked that the attitude of the Radical party now is the exact counterpart of that of the rebel States during the war. They have not yet taken up arms; but who does not see that they are preparing for that event? If the people of those States revolted with the intent to dissolve the Union, the Radical party, according to the undisguised threatenings of its leaders, is on the eve of a revolt, if it cannot prevent the restoration of the Union. The people of the South, broken if not humbled by disaster, are anxious for Union. The Northern Radicals, exulting in a victory much more due to Northern Democrats, who fought for the Union, than to themselves, resist Union. Are not those who oppose Union positive rebels in heart and in purpose?

Is there any other rational test to apply to their conduct, in order to make manifest their true character? No,—the avowals of the Radical demagogues are too undisguised to admit of any misapprehension as to their objects. The wonder is that any body of men, of fair reputation, should be willing to consort with them,—that any class, with property and substantial interest at stake, should not be sagacious enough to discern the end, to which the designs of those, who unblushingly confess their preference for disorder and confusion to the settlement of equal laws, must inevitably lead!

If the Radical theory is to prevail, the President will no longer be the chief magistrate of the United States. Those States will have become disunited. The secession begun by the South will, practically and morally, have been completed by the North. He will be, nominally, the chief magistrate of only a portion of the once United States, under another system of laws; and under another system inconsistent with it, the ruler over a separate portion, in which the progressive spirit of fanatical fury will have substituted the bondage of white men for that of the blacks.

But the President declares that the Union has not been dissolved; that secession has proved a failure; that the insurgent part of the population, having submitted to the authority of the laws and manifesting not the least disposition to renew the contest, should be reckoned as on their original footing; and that they should be thus received, in order to reinstate the common country in its original integrity, honor and prosperity. His declaration is in conformity with the spirit and intent of the Constitution, which is the sole basis and bond of the Union, in accordance with reason and right feeling, and evidently points out not only the speedy way of peace, but the only mode by which peace and the blessings of peace can be reassured.

The Radical party refuses to assent to this rational, just and patriotic way of finally settling the national troubles. It prefers the way of strife and the road to anarchy. It chooses to institute a new quarrel; for that with the South no longer exists. The South, although in a certain sense the occasion of the new quarrel, stands aloof from and takes no part in it. The attitude assumed by the Radicals, if they are permitted to maintain it, can only end in a conflict between themselves and the conservative force of the Northern community. Sooner or later, this conflict must come, for the cause of whatever yet remains of the Constitution and Union, on the one side; and, on the other, to perpetuate the rule of a party, not satisfied with Union, not content with law, not willing for peace. Out of a republic, whose mission is peace, the Radical faction would again extort war. It would renew the reign of violence and terror; but its plunder would now be seized in a different quarter of the country than before. The people do not yet see the real issue. But no reflecting man can doubt that whenever the lines are sharply drawn, the conservative force of the people will rally with overpowing strength; and that the Radical faction, in spite of all its boasts and presumptuous pretence, will be found, if not in numbers as insignificant as it was pronounced to be by the resolve of Congress in 1862, yet, in such and actual minority as to astound those timid Conservatives, who dread and deprecate disorder, and yet stand aside without lifting a finger to prevent it.

We do not propose, at this moment, to enter upon the consideration of the probable details of such a conflict, and of its inevitable results. If, however, that conflict should in reality ensue, and should prove more formidable than we would fain hope; if the Radical party should appear as strong in arms as it has been in votes, the entire disintegration of the United States could hardly fail to follow as a consequence.—Nor is it a vain imagination, that New England might then be compelled to seek the close alliance of our Canadian neighbors, in its own defence. What a singular turn of events would it be, if New England should, at length, become once more a British Colony?

Let us trust, however, that the people will awake in time to prevent the monstrous designs of men so thoroughly the slaves of their own vindictive, selfish and reckless passions, and so utterly regardless of the public welfare. But, so far as the President is concerned, he has no choice presented to him. The very motive of self preservation must vividly remind him, that he must maintain his position, or be ruined in the ruin of the country. The course of conduct indicated by him is no more a matter of judgment and reflection, than of duty—duty to his own great office, as the arbiter, in the hands of Providence, of the future weal or woe that awaits the land. He is bound, at whatever hazard, by the most solemn of all human obligations, to maintain the Constitution and to restore the Union. If he stands firm to this inexorable pledge, the people will rally round and support him. If he should falter, the horde of Radicals will rush upon and trample over him, and the country, with him, will be lost.

THE SENTINEL.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 10, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—I. M. Stockton offers for sale a valuable house and lot in the town of Stavesville.

Jas. Webb, Ex'r., Hillsborough, will sell, on the 5th. of November, the farm and residence of the late Dr. O. F. Long, at Oaks, Orange County. It is apparently a valuable property.

Roxboro Male Academy, with a lot of eight acres attached, will be sold to the highest bidder, on the 18th. inst. A good opportunity is here offered to teachers.

Worth & Daniel, Wilmington, offer, very low, to country buyers, gunny cloths, rope, guano, salt, lime, hides, &c.

R. B Andrews & Co., 20 Fayetteville Street present a superb and attractive list of Fall and Winter clothing. Mr. Scott has retired from the firm, and Mr. Baldwin, of the firm of Keen, Baldwin & Williams, Richmond, has been admitted as a partner. Under the new management, and under the immediate auspices, in this City, of Mr. Andrews, the establishment will be conducted with its usual enterprise and go-ahead-itiveness.

DAN CASTELLO'S GREAT SHOW.—This great "show," under the auspices of Mr. Dan Castello, will exhibit in Raleigh, on Monday, the 22nd inst. The press speaks of this exhibition as one conducted upon the most unexceptionable principles. Castello, himself, is a man of genius and great versatility of talent. He is a clever clown, a ready wit, an original conversationa'ist and an unequalled horse trainer.

The stock of acting horses comprises some noble animals. The Circassian steed "Czar," the only specimen of the mammoth maned horse ever imported to this country, is distinguishable not only for his beauty, but his docility. "Andy Johnson," an Oriental thorough-bred, is hard to excel, and the petite comedian "January," is a proverb in every community where he has been.

The performing animals, lions and lionesses, are shown by Herr Lengel in a most extraordinary manner. The startling feature will be presented, when the procession takes place, of a live lion let loose upon the streets. As this has been done elsewhere, with perfect success, we presume that it will "go off" all right. It looks formidable on paper, however.

Castello goes hence to Greensboro.

DESTITUTION.—We noticed, says the Wilmington Dispatch of the 9th, standing at the corner of Second and Market streets, yesterday morning, a party of poverty-stricken colored women, who, we understand, had made application to the Freedmen's Bureau for relief and were turned over to the civil authorities to be provided for. A late order from Gen. Howard prohibits the extension of aid by the Bureau to such parties unless sick or in hospitals.

RAIL ROAD MEETING.—We call special attention to the proposition of the citizens of Cumberland county to have a Rail Road Meeting at Mt. Vernon Springs, Chatham Co., on the 1st of Nov. next, to devise a plan for the extension of the Western (Coal Field) Road from Egypt to some point on the N. C. Rail Road.

We are glad to see this movement. It shows the true spirit. We wish it great success. We hope it will stir the friends of the Chatham Rail Road to be up and doing. Gen. Cox, the President of the Chatham Road, will prosecute that work vigorously, as soon as it can be done.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, Oct. 9, 1866.—Frank Edwards, Dan Castello's Circus; A. H. Stein, Chicago, Ill.; Col. J. M. Heck, Warren Co.; C. P. Cardozo, Norfolk; R. E. Morecock, R. & G. R. R.; Mrs. Mayhew and son, Newbern; Mrs. E. Mayhew and son, Newbern; L. Branson, Raleigh; J. H. Farrar, Haywood; G. W. Swepson, Haw River; W. H. Willard, Orange Co.; J. C. Burhaum, Charlotte; Thos. F. Siddel, Orange Co.; Dr. O. Hicks, Rutherfordton; Chas. C. Pell, Chicago, Ill.; W. T. Rice, Gates Co.; Mrs. Branch, Gates Co.; J. M. Shelby, Thomasville; R. C. Brooks, Richmond; C. W. Wood, Newbern; E. D. Mann, Chatham.

THE OLDEST LAWYER.—A correspondent of the Wilmington Dispatch says that John Gilchrist, Esq., of Robeson county, is the oldest lawyer in North Carolina. He graduated at the University in 1807.

GENEROUS BENEFACTION.—A. T. Stewart, the merchant prince of New York, has donated fine flannel and Delaine sufficient to make up an outfit for each orphan of the Petersburg (Va.) Female Orphan Asylum.

N. C. PETROLEUM AND MINING COMPANY.—The notice of this company, copied in the Sentinel of October 5th, is erroneously credited to a Richmond cotemporary. It was compiled in this office and appeared in the Day Book on the afternoon of the 3d instant. We have an eye to all that concerns North Carolina, and simply call attention to this little matter as an oversight of our able cotemporary—and as an evidence that we attentively read his excellent paper.—Norfolk Day Book.

We proffer the amende honorable. We bear cheerful testimony to the interest which our respected cotemporary exhibits in all that affects the prosperity of North Carolina.

PERSON COUNTY.—A friend informs us that the following tickets are in the field in Person:

CONSERVATIVE ANTI-REPUDIATION TICKET.

For the Senate—John W. Cunningham, Esq.

Commons—W. A. Bradsher.

The above, we understand, are decided for Gov. Worth and against the Howard amendment.

REPUDIATION AND ANTI-CONSERVATIVE.

Senate—Charles Smith.

Commons—John D. Wilkinson.

Our correspondent says: "Person will give Gov. Worth a very large majority, this time, over any man. The election of Messrs. Cunningham and Bradsher, we hope, is beyond all question."

B. F. Butler Develops the Radical Plan,—How the Work is to be Done,—Force to be Resorted to by the Radicals if Mr. Johnson Refuses to Obey the Behests of the Rump Congress.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.

Butler addressed an immense audience at Xenia, Dayton, and Springfield on Friday, and at Hamilton and Cincinnati yesterday. General Butler advocated the impeachment of the President, because he sought to bring Congress into public hatred, ridicule and contempt; because he had corruptly used the power of removal and appointments; because he had neglected to execute those laws of Congress which were passed over his veto and other laws; because he had defied the constitutional right of the Senate to confirm appointments by placing in power officers whom it had rejected; because he had corruptly used the pardoning power and unlawfully restored property belonging by right of capture to the United States, and because he usurped the power of Congress by terminating the war by proclamations instead of by treaty by the advice of the Senate or a law of Congress. Each of these offences are high crimes and misdemeanors in the meaning of the Constitution.

The speech concluded as follows:

"We have been asked the question, How can the President be impeached? He is Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy, and the Constitution of the United States says nothing whatever about who shall hold the office while he is being impeached. Therefore, if you begin the impeachment he will order the army and navy to disperse Congress, and he will seize the reins of government. Where is the remedy? Here it is: The House of Representatives, under the Constitution, is the grand inquest of the nation—perhaps I might say, for illustration, the Grand Jury of the nation. It prepares the bill of impeachment against the President if it sees cause, and it presents the bill of impeachment to the Senate of the United States, which then becomes a high court of impeachment, and the Chief Justice of the United States sits in that court as its presiding officer. It is thus no longer, for that purpose, the Senate of the United States, but it is the court of impeachment of the United States. What shall they do? When the impeachment is ready the Senate sends out its messenger or sergeant-at-arms to bring in the criminal, be he high or low. (Applause.) They set him at the bar and read the bill to him. If he plead guilty, then they proceed to sentence him, which sentence is a desposition and deprivation of office. When he is brought before the bar the Senate of the United States may order him to be imprisoned, or to find bail, or any other proper order that a court may adopt in a criminal case, and when the Constitution provided this mode of trial, did its framers mean that a man who is before the Court of Impeachment as a criminal shall be at the same time chief executive officer of the government? By no means. From that moment he ceases to be able to exercise the duties of that office until he is acquitted. And then comes the case of the inability of the President of the United States to exercise the office of President, so the Vice-President must take the office, and there being no Vice-President, it must devolve on the President of the Senate for the time being. (Applause.) If in any of these steps, so taken, according to the Constitution, the President does not obey as a good citizen the behests of the High Court of Impeachment, then that court, like any other court in the land, can call upon the whole body of the people to aid it in enforcing its rightful authority. (Applause.) And now I serve a notice on Andy Johnson that when a rightful court of the Senate of the United States calls for aid in their behalf, on the people of the United States, "the boys in blue" will answer. We are told that if Congress shall proceed to exercise their rightful authority, then there will be tried the strength of the government, that the President will call upon the army and navy, and the army and navy will obey him. Let there be no fear about that, because the army and the navy of the United States are not those few men that are in the regular service. (Applause.) I have no desire to disparage either the patriotism or the integrity of the army of the United States, but if the army, as such, or if any portion of it, or of any officer of it, shall so far forget the duties he owes to his flag and to his profession as a soldier as to answer any but the legal call of his country, that small body of men shall be swept from the face of the earth as a cabinet is swept away before the rising of the morning sun." (Prolonged cheers.)

At Hamilton, Butler, in reply to a charge that he was responsible for stopping the exchange of prisoners, gave his history of the transaction, and stated that he stopped the exchange under the express written order of the Lieutenant General.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.

The President has appointed Jno. S. Eys, of Ohio, Minister Resident and Consul General of the U. S. to the Republic of Liberia, and Chas. W. Seymour and W. B. Budd, of New York, and E. R. Mudge, Commissioners to the Paris Exhibition.

Mr. Seward was well enough to attend a Cabinet meeting to-day.

Certain persons in Washington and elsewhere claim that they have peculiar facilities for obtaining pardons for Southern participators in the late civil war. This is an imposition on the public, and numbers of persons have been victimized.

Matters in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 9.

Flour firm and stock light. Wheat steady. Corn scarce. Provisions inactive. Seeds steady. Flax seed $3.15. Groceries firm. Whiskey heavy, Western $2.42.

A report is in circulation that Gov. Swann intends removing the Police Commissioners for alleged official misconduct, respecting arrangements for the municipal elections to-morrow. The rumor causes much discussion and excitement.

From New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.

Thurlow Weed announces, in the New York Times, that he supports the Democratic nomination for Governor, and that he prefers to act with the Democratic party to acting with the Radicals, from whose ascendancy he fears the worst results for the country.

The Elections in Pennylvania, &c.—Probable Election of Geary.—Reported Gain of Radical Congressmen.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9, P. M.

Alleghany County gives 9,000 Radical majority,—same as in 1864.

Blair County gives Geary 800 majority,—a loss of 100.

Chester County gives Geary a majority of 2,300.

The returns from this City show large gains for the Democracy, who have also gained one State Senator and three members of the Legislature.

Returns from the interior indicate gains for each party, but there is no doubt of Geary's election by from 10,000 to 15,000 majority.

The Democrats have lost the member of Congress from the 10th District—Cate, Republican, being elected, probably, by a small majority.

Later.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9, P. M.

A dispatch to the National Union Committee here states that the Republicans claim Philadelphia by only 5,000 majority, which is a large Democratic gain as compared with the election of 1864.

Latest.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9, Midnight.

The Press estimates the majority for Geary in this city at 5,000 and in the State at 15,000.

Dispatches from Thad. Stevens say that Lancaster gives 6,200 majority for the Republicans, and Alleghany 9,000.

Forney claims gains for the Republicans of Cake in the 10th District and Koontz in the 15th for Congress.

Another special reports Republican gains in all the Western counties and also in Eastern Ohio.

No farther reports from the West.

Southern Markets.

MOBILE, Oct 9, P. M.

Cotton sales, to-day, 300 bales. Middling 35 a 36. Market firm.

The Pennsylvania Elections.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.

Geary's majority in this city is 4,693 and in the State from 10 to 15,000.

Randal, dem., for Congress has 4,600 majority,—a gain of 2,500. Kelly, Myers and O'Neil, Republicans, elected by reduced majorities.

Taylor beats Russ in the 5th district, where the democrats confidently expected a gain.

Dennison, dem. is elected in the 12th., but his election will be contested on the ground of illegal voting.

Jno. Carroll, rep., reported elected in 1st district, which would be a gain.

The Congressional delegation stands 17 Republican to 6 Democrats, with the 21st District in doubt. Republicans gain one, and the election in the 12th district to be contested.

Ohio Elections.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 10.

Close contest in the 1st District between Pendleton, Dem., and Eggleston, Rep. The latter probably elected by 500 majority—a loss of 1900 on the vote of '64.

Fifteen Republicans certainly returned to Congress, and perhaps seventeen.

Republican State ticket elected by a large majority.

Indiana Elections.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 10.

Election returns very indefinite and unsatisfactory, but the Republicans claim the State by a reduced majority.

In the 1st. dist., Niblack, Dem., is elected; in the 3rd. Hunter, in the 5th. Julian, in the 6th. Burns, in the 9th. Colfax, in the 10th. Williams, and in the 11th. Shanks,—all Republicans.

Baltimore Elections.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 10.

The city election is progressing quietly and is confined exclusively to registered voters.

A man forty years old committed suicide in Philadelphia, Tuesday, because he did not wish to outlive his mother, who was seriously ill.

A little girl in Cambridge fell down on Saturday, in the street, on a slate pencil which she carried, which penetrated her side, and, it is thought, reached the right lung. The pencil was removed a short time after, but the patient lies in a critical condition.

The tendency of people to carry quotations too far was illustrated in a New Haven prayer meeting the other day by a brother who exclaimed in an agony of piety:—"O Lord, have mercy upon us poor miserable sinners, of which I am chief among ten thousand, and altogether lovely."

If the loyalists, so-called, from the South, now stumping the North, were fair samples of the South, our judgment would be that it should never be represented in any respectable Congress. She might do to be represented in the present Congress—couldn't make it any meaner.—Louisville Democrat.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too patent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
Notary Public,
L. S. Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters.

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR

Maggiel's Pills and Salve.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.
The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.
PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.
The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesaler, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.
Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.
For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

LARGE

Opening of New Fall Goods,

With an extensive assortment of CARPETS, RUGS, DRUGGETTS AND GENERAL HOUSE-KEEPING GOODS, and an entirely new stock of the handsomest DRESS GOODS the market affords.
Ladies will find this the best opportunity to procure choice new styles of FALL DRESS GOODS, which I am now opening in great variety, such as splendid Eugenia and Empress Cloths, Crepes, Merinos, Goldanelia, richly embroidered—an entirely new things, rich, brilliant silk stripes on chene grounds: "Transcomia A'Soie, effective Carcanx, with rich Broches," "Lornetto, effective Satin Carreaux," on lasting finish grounds, very costly; "Rich Valentia, in plain chene," all new and desirable shades, prime qualities and beautiful designs, with rich Broches.
A magnificent assortment of

SQUARE & LONG SHAWLS

in all their new styles and combinations, at prices that will not fail to please. I would call special attention to my stock of the largest in Va., or North Carolina, embracing 20,000 yards, all bought at auction, and will be sold at prices far below any similar quality ever offered in this market. I have also just received over 10,000 yards of PANTALOON GOODS, in every variety of finish and quality, varying in price from 30c, to $3. This stock is the largest and most complete of the kind that I have ever offered, and will be constantly replenished during the season as the demand requires.

GENUINE IRISH LINENS,

At a future day I will enumerate the different lines of Goods I usually keep. Suffice it to say, at present, that everything kept in any first-class Dry-Goods House can be found here, in every variety, at the lowest prices.
I would say to those in want of

that the greatest care has been taken in the selection of the best colors and finest fabrics, and they have but to be seen to be appreciated, so that those in want had better

1866. FALL TRADE 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.
They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

Ready-Made Clothing,

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

NOTIONS,

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.
Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market. McILWAINE & CO.
